An epic journey through antiquity highlighted by stays at luxury hotels and aboard a stately dahabiya

Temple of Luxor

Dear W&L Alumni, Parents, and Friends,

Of all the lands visited by the W&L Traveller over the years, Egypt is the destination that resounds most in our memory. Here is the fabled realm of the pharaohs, who left us the most vividly preserved of human histories. Here, near the miracle of the Nile, stand the colossal pyramids and towering temples of an ancient civilization that thrived for millennia, protected by the trackless wastes of the Sahara. Here, in the delicate reliefs and wall paintings of ancient tombs can be found the beauty and grace of mortality and its longing for an afterlife.

I'm pleased to invite you to join us on W&L's latest expedition to Egypt. The new Cairo Museum beckons, and indeed the crowds are back. During the recent lull in Egyptian tourism, the hospitality industry has refurbished Egypt's classic hotels to even grader standards of luxury. The Nile is again thronged with a flotilla of cruise boats glinting in the relentless sun. The question is, how does one make the visit?

As you will read in this brochure, we have found a way not only to enjoy the best of Egyptian hospitality but to explore the immense span of Egyptian history in relative comfort and privacy. We'll observe the Great Pyramids emerge from dusk of the Giza plateau from our balconies at the Mena House. We'll relax in the opulence of the newly restored Winter Palace, choosing our times to visit Karnak Temple and the Valley of Kings when the cruise boats have retired. We'll savor the exquisite tranquility of the Nile from our tandem 14-guest barges (dehabiyas). Finally, in Aswan, we'll enjoy a sweeping view of the Nile from the exquisitely refurbished Old Catatract Hotel. This is a trip of wonder with the leisure and calm to enjoy them.

Space on this all-inclusive program is limited. Now that the virus is fading, we anticipate that the tour will fill quickly, so we recommend that you reserve your spot at your earliest convenience. You may phone us at (540) 458-8723 to place your reservation.

Sincerely,

Robert Fure, Ph.D.
