Day 3: Glencoe | Oban

Tuesday, July 14, 2026 (B,L,D)

Following a hearty Scottish breakfast take the brief journey north to Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park. Loch Lomond is the largest expanse of inland water in Great Britain. Embark on an idyllic cruise through the crystal-clear waters, perfectly framed by snow-capped mountains in the distance. Pass through iconic South Basin's unparalleled views of the stunning Ben Lomond and stately homes and castles dotting the shoreline. Also see the fascinating Inchmurrin Island, the largest of the loch's 33 islands, which once served as a refuge for a young Robert the Bruce before he became King of Scotland. Take advantage of opportunities to spot for local wildlife and photograph the sensational panoramas.

Continue to the charming village of Luss to stroll The Luss Heritage Trail—a path that follows the river, meanders through the ancient woodland and arrives at a conservation area and pier over Loch Lomond providing amazing views of the surrounding mountains.

Enjoy leisure time in the park for independent exploration before departing for the hotel for check-in and dinner at Ee-usk Restaurant featuring an incredible seafood menu and captivating coastal views along the water's edge of the North Pier.

Overnight: Oban Bay Hotel

Day 4: Isle of Mull

Wednesday, July 15, 2026 (B,L)

This morning board a ferry destined for the Isle of Mull—the largest of the islands of Argyll and the third largest in Scotland, with 300 miles of coastline. Beyond its natural beauty, Mull has a fascinating history. From prehistoric stone circles to the influence of clan battles, the island has been shaped by centuries of human activity. The island is also host to an abundance of wildlife on land and in its waters including puffins, great whales and sharks.

Venture to the Isle of Mull Cheese and Spirit for a tour and tasting. The island's cheesemakers take pride in using traditional methods and locally sourced ingredients to produce a range of distinctive cheeses. Celebrate the artisanal craftsmanship and rich flavors of the region with each bite, from tangy cheddar to creamy blues.

Next visit Tobermory Distillery for a tasting. Established in 1798, the distillery is renowned for its two main creations: Tobermory, a single malt whisky with a fruity profile, and Ledaig, a peat whisky with a smoky, robust character.

Afterward discover Aros Park, a tranquil green space set against a backdrop of lush woodland with spectacular views. A great place for nature lovers, the park was once part of the estate of the Earl of Sutherland before it was opened to the public in the 1970s. Casually stroll the Lochan Walk, a picturesque trail around Lochan a Ghurrabain. Along this well-maintained path, pass through woodlands, alongside the lochan and over small footbridges. Heron, mallard, goosander and goldeneye can often be seen on the loch, and there have been sightings of water rail, blackcap and goldcrest in the trees.

Conclude the exciting day with an evening at leisure at the hotel.

Overnight: The Western Isles Hotel

Day 5: Isle of Mull

Thursday, July 16, 2026 (B)

After breakfast set off on a boat tour around Staffa and Iona—a unique opportunity to experience two of Scotland's most remarkable and historically significant islands from the water.

In the early 19th century, the uninhabited Hebridean island of Staffa—named after the Old Norse word for stave—became inspiration for writers and poets like Coleridge and Wordsworth, and artists like Turner who were drawn to Staffa's natural beauty and unique geological features. Approaching the island it's apparent why it has long inspired awe.

Staffa's most famous feature is its otherworldly hexagonal columns of basalt, formed millions of years ago by volcanic eruptions. Among its geological marvels, Fingal's Cave is most notable—its echoing silence broken only by the crash of waves. This natural wonder so moved composer Felix Mendelssohn that he composed his famous Hebridean Overture after visiting.

Staffa is also known for its vibrant birdlife, particularly the colorful puffins that nest on the island in summer. Spot for these charming seabirds along with other wildlife including seals, dolphins and even whales.

Nearing Iona's rugged coastline dotted with beaches, coves and rocky outcrops, glimpse the iconic Iona Abbey—a historic Christian site founded by St. Columba in the 6th century. The abbey has long been a place of pilgrimage and is one of Scotland's most sacred locations.

Disembark and enter the abbey for an inside tour. Constructed in 563 AD by St. Columba and his followers, the abbey you see today has undergone several renovations following various Viking attacks throughout the 6th and 7th centuries. A survey completed in 1549 recorded a staggering 48 Scottish kings buried here as well as eight Norwegian and four Irish kings. Admire the extraordinary nave with magnificent Romanesque and Gothic vaults and columns, and the nearby cloister with a large bronze sculpture, The Descent of the Spirit, by Lithuanian Sculptor Jacques Lipchitz.

Before returning to the hotel, take the opportunity to experience St. Columba Bay walk, an easy three-mile scenic trail leading to St. Columba Cave—where the saint is said to have spent time in prayer and meditation.

Overnight: The Western Isles Hotel

Day 6: Inverness

Friday, July 17, 2026 (B,D)

This morning travel by ferry from Fishnish to Lochaline, stopping at Loch Ness viewpoint for photography opportunities before arriving at the idyllic city of Inverness on Scotland's northeast coast. Many know Inverness as the capital of the Highlands, though it doesn't officially hold this title. Inverness has only been considered a city since 2000.

Continue to Culloden Battlefield—the site of the final Jacobite Rising. One of the most harrowing battles in Scottish history, the Battle of Culloden only lasted an hour but would change Scotland and Highland culture forever. Inside the Culloden Visitor Centre, learn more about the conflict from both sides through interactive displays and artifacts before walking the actual battlefield. Reflect on this rebellious event while viewing the headstones of clansmen who gave their lives for the Jacobite cause. Next watch a weapons demonstration followed by a guided battlefield tour across the moor.

Check into the hotel late afternoon and enjoy time to freshen up before rejoining the group for dinner.

Overnight: Muthu Newton Hotel

Day 7: Aberdeen

Saturday, July 18, 2026 (B,L)

After breakfast set out for Byres Farm to experience up close the complexity of an authentic working farm. The farm grows malting barley which is sold to make Glenlivet and Aberlour whiskys. Join the proprietor for a guided walk through the fields and gain insight into the processes involved growing this important crop. Also hear about the environmental and conservation tactics being applied on the farm.

Next visit a family-owned berry farm for a delightful lunch. Earning a reputation as one of Scotland's northernmost fruit growers, this farm symbolizes family values, commitment to quality and support for local produce.

This afternoon connect with the royal family's personal legacy in the Scottish Highlands during a tour of Balmoral Castle. Purchased by Queen Victoria and Prince Albert in 1852, the estate was transformed into a private retreat and royal residence. The estate spans more than 50,000 acres and includes farmlands, woodlands and a spectacular Victorian garden. Touring the ballroom and grounds, learn about the castle's Baronial-style architecture. Peruse displays of royal artifacts, portraits, furniture and other objects collected over the years.

Overnight: Balmoral Arms Hotel

Day 8: Edinburgh

Sunday, July 19, 2026 (B)

Today see Devil's Elbow Viewpoint in Glenshee, which provides a glimpse of the serpentine road climbing to the Cairnwell Pass, the UK's highest main road. Once notorious for its hairpin bends, the road was straightened in the 1960s, yet traces of the original twists remain as a reminder of its challenging past.

Then take a leisure walk through The Hermitage, a stretch of magical Perthshire forest cared for by the National Trust for Scotland. Giant Douglas firs tower over the path to the roaring Black Linn waterfall. Deeper into the woods, discover the picturesque 18th-century folly known as Ossian's Hall (a small, square building with an unassuming exterior that contrasts with its elaborate and theatrical interior) which overlooks the stunning waterfall.

Continue to Askival of Strathearn, a Perthshire kilt tailor dedicated to creating beautiful bespoke tailored kilts, for an informative demonstration in a beautiful workshop. Learn traditional kilt making techniques and specifications as well as kilt style evolutions throughout the years.

This evening prepare for an unforgettable performance of the iconic Edinburgh Military Tattoo—as the sun sets against the backdrop of Edinburgh's grand castle.

This event celebrates the skills of military bands and display teams from the British Armed Forces, the Commonwealth, and military teams throughout the world. Flaming torches, flying flags, an impressive light display, dancing, colorful uniforms and intricate marching formations complete the emotionally stirring pageantry. Be sure to dress in layers for the outdoors as the seating in the esplanade is uncovered.

Overnight: Edinburgh Marriott Hotel Holyrood

Day 9: Edinburgh

Monday, July 20, 2026 (B,D)

After breakfast visit the Palace of Holyroodhouse—the previous residence of Mary, Queen of Scots—that was founded as a monastery in 1128. This property once hosted other royalty including the Bonnie Prince Charlie and the late Queen of England, Elizabeth II. Tour the 14 historic state apartments and imagine life of yesteryear while marveling at the intricate drapery, old wood paneling and ornately designed ceilings. The Queen's Gallery at the Palace of Holyroodhouse hosts a program of changing exhibitions from the Royal Collection. Behold the natural beauty of the palace gardens' rolling lush green pastures, vibrant flowers and Wentworth Elm trees, which were previously thought to have been extinct.

Today's adventures continue with a guided walking tour of Dean Village, a quaint town with beautiful architecture and lovely scenery. Stroll through Circus Lane, known for its ivy-covered mews houses, and visit St. Bernard's Well, an elegant neoclassical temple along the Water of Leith. Admire Well Court's red sandstone courtyard and Stockbridge Library's classic architecture. Follow the tranquil waters by Leith Walkway for serene photography opportunities, and marvel at the unique terraced houses in The Colonies. Conclude the tour at Inverleith Park with free time to enjoy the expansive green space.

This afternoon partake in a hands-on activity at the Islander Bag Workshop where you have the opportunity to create a custom bag, toiletry kit or backpack with the help of the workshop team. Select all the elements to personalize your creation including fabric and Harris Tweed tartan pattern, lining, hardware and stitching. The shop's craftsmen will be available to guide and assist throughout the process, helping to ensure a tailored and unique end product.

This evening gather together at a local tavern for a final festive dinner to celebrate the exciting week exploring Scotland.

At the time of reservation, Orbridge needs to be notified to determine if the special needs of an individual traveler can be met through special arrangements. It is possible that minor modifications to the services can be provided, but only if Orbridge is made specifically aware of anticipated needs. This notification should be made in writing no less than two weeks prior to the planned travel. In addition, some countries require your passport to have an expiry date of not less than six months after your anticipated return to the United States. Orbridge disclaims all liability for any expenses or costs you may incur due to your prohibition or restriction from entering a country on the program itinerary or reentering the United States at the conclusion of the program.
