Return to the mainland by ferry, arriving at the hotel this evening.

Day 4: Glasgow / Stirling / Glencoe

Tuesday, August 15, 2023

Continue the journey north to Stirling, where the Lowlands meet the Highlands, for a self-guided tour of stately Stirling Castle and its lovely gardens. Known as one of Scotland’s grandest castles, it looms over many of the most important battlefields in Scottish history. View Stirling Bridge—the site of William Wallace’s victory over the English in 1297. See Bannockburn, where Robert the Bruce defeated the same adversary in 1314.

Often regarded as a symbol of Scottish independence and national pride, Stirling Castle has seen the life and death of almost every Scottish monarch up to the Union of the Crowns in 1603.

In the village of Killin, enjoy a special stop to a family-owned business. At the Falls of Dochart Smokehouse, there are two simple, guiding principles: “to produce and to serve the finest whisky smoked salmon.” Delight in a talk on the smoking process and learn about the local treasures of salmon, the countryside, and the River Tay system.

To produce their unique, subtle whisky taste, the Falls of Dochart Smokehouse sources the finest aged whisky casks and pounds them into dust. This dust creates an aromatic smoke, which gives the salmon a rich, full-bodied flavor. The small, local team passionately cares about every step of the process, from curing and smoking through to the slicing and packaging. All is done by hand and to order.

Salmon are reared by ethical and sustainable suppliers in the waters of the Hebrides and the sheltered lochs of north east Scotland. Savor a selection of canopies featuring both whisky smoked hot and cold smoked salmon, plus whisky smoked pate and cheese with locally made chutney.

Later, return to the hotel for dinner.
Overnight: Kingshouse Hotel (B,D)

Day 5: Glencoe / The Scottish Highlands

Wednesday, August 16, 2023

Today, see Inverarary Castle, located on the western edge of Loch Fyne in Argyll. Its gardens include approximately two acres of formal lawns and a stunning collection of flowers. Guests enjoy the many fine tree specimens planted throughout, including Cedrus Deodars and Sequoiadendron Wellingtonia.

The castle is a magnificent, towered mansion and the ancestral home of the Duke of Argyll, Chief of the Clan Campbell. The structure houses many interesting and lavishly decorated rooms, with collections of tapestries and paintings, and superb displays of weapons. Rob Roy MacGregor’s sporran and dirk handle are on display.

Enjoy a brief stroll through the picturesque town of Luss. Famous for its quaint slate cottages with decorative hanging flower baskets, the village also boasts panoramic views of Loch Lomond.

At Loch Lomond, sit back and relax on a cruise. It is the largest expanse of fresh water in Great Britain and is Scotland's third deepest loch. While cruising the waters, take in the landscape of the magnificent Ben Lomond, stately homes and castles dotting the shoreline, close-ups of several islands, and chances to spot wildlife. In 1999, Loch Lomond and the surrounding area were given the distinction of becoming Scotland’s first national park.

Today concludes with a lovely dinner at the hotel followed by a restful evening.

Overnight: Kingshouse Hotel (B,D)

Day 6: Loch Ness / Inverness
Thursday, August 17, 2023
After breakfast, continue farther north to the famous Loch Ness to visit Urquhart Castle nestled on shore. Urquhart Castle was once regarded as one of the greatest in all of the Highlands, having borne witness to some of Scotland’s most dramatic historical moments. Control over the medieval fortress passed back and forth between the Scots and the English during the Wars of Independence. As those forces departed, the last government troops who occupied the castle destroyed it during the Jacobite Risings, leaving behind the ruins that stand today. Peer into medieval life—learning of the area's history from nearly 1,000 years ago—while observing a full-size trebuchet and a prison cell that is thought to have held the Gaelic bard, Dòmhall Donn.

Embark upon a serene, narrated cruise exploring the deep, mysterious waters of Loch Ness, which holds more fresh water than all of the lakes in England and Wales combined.

Later arrive to the idyllic city of Inverness on Scotland’s northeast coast for brief leisure time in town. Many know Inverness as the capital of the Highlands, though it doesn't officially hold this title. Inverness has only been considered a city since 2000. The name comes from the Gaelic “Inbhir Nis,” which means “Mouth of the River Ness.” Inverness Castle is the site where Macbeth murdered King Duncan in Shakespeare's play.

After an enriching day of exploration, enjoy a relaxing dinner and a peaceful slumber at River Ness Hotel.

Overnight: River Ness Hotel (B,D)

Day 7: Inverness / Aberdeen
Friday, August 18, 2023
This morning, experience Culloden Battlefield—the site of the final Jacobite Rising. One of the most harrowing battles in Scottish history, the Battle of Culloden only lasted an hour but would change Scotland and Highland culture forever. Inside the Culloden Visitor Centre, learn more about the conflict from both sides through interactive displays and artifacts before walking the actual battlefield. Reflect on this rebellious event while viewing the headstones of clansmen who gave their lives for the Jacobite cause.

Following lunch, journey to a Scottish distillery. Did you know? According to the Scotch Whisky Association, Scotland is home to more than 130 malt and grain distilleries, making it the greatest concentration of whisky production in the world. Discover the environment of a distillery with a warm welcome from some of the people who bring this iconic product to life.

Retreat to Norwood Hall Hotel for dinner and this evening's stay.
Day 8: Aberdeen / St. Andrews / Edinburgh
Saturday, August 19, 2023
Today visit Glamis Castle—a living, breathing monument to Scottish heritage. Here at the family home of the Earls of Strathmore and Kinghorne, an exclusive behind-the-scenes tour awaits. Enjoy refreshments in the 16th-century kitchen. See why Glamis Castle, a stunning architectural treasure, is rich with colorful vitality—from remarkable paintings to unique furniture pieces and precise architectural details. This castle was gifted by Robert the Bruce to the Bowes-Lyon family in 1372 and was originally a royal hunting lodge. It’s perhaps best known as the childhood home of the Queen Mother, the birthplace of Princess Margaret, and the setting of Shakespeare’s Macbeth. Visitors are impressed with the estate, comprising more than 13,500 acres and are intrigued by the mysterious, strange, and ghostly tales attached to it. Secret chambers have always been associated with Glamis. It’s said if one counts the windows on the outside and compares that number with the windows counted on the inside, there are two windows missing, indicating at least one secret room.

Later, at charming St. Andrews, drive by the Old Course and explore the local cafés and boutique shops during leisure time. Admire the medieval architecture of the university and marvel at the perfectly manicured golf courses here, at what is considered to be the birthplace of golf. Gazing towards the water, notice an iconic piece of Scottish landscape—the West Sands—famous for the opening sequence of Chariots of Fire.

This evening presents an unforgettable performance of one of the most iconic events on this city’s calendar—the Edinburgh Military Tattoo—as the sun sets against the backdrop of Edinburgh’s grand castle. The Tattoo has a proud Scottish history, stretching back almost seven decades and initially inspired by a simple show called “Something About a Soldier” performed in 1949 at the Ross Bandstand, which is still located in Princess Street Gardens just below the Castle. This event celebrates the skills of military bands and display teams from the British Armed Forces, the Commonwealth, and military teams throughout the world. Prepare for goosebumps as the strains of bagpipes fill the night air along the beating of drums. Lit torches, flying flags, an impressive light display, dancing, colorful dress, and intricate marching formations complete the emotionally stirring pageantry. The Top Secret Drum Corps of Switzerland is a spectator favorite. Their talent and precision is a marvel to behold and must be seen to be appreciated. In a previous performance, the Corps’ drumsticks also served as flutes! Cheer and clap along with the crowd at this first-class synchronized and entertaining show. Be sure to dress in layers for the outdoors as the seating in the esplanade is uncovered.

Day 9: Edinburgh
Sunday, August 20, 2023
This morning, after a hearty breakfast, join a guided panoramic city tour of Edinburgh—Scotland's beloved capital since the 15th century—through its Old and New Towns. This UNESCO World Heritage Site teems with remarkable architecture, medieval fixtures, and Georgian-inspired buildings, all converging at Princes Street with a unique view of Edinburgh Castle. See Calton Hill and its National Monument, rightfully giving Edinburgh its nickname: the "Athens of the North."

Afterward, visit the Palace of Holyroodhouse, the previous residence of Mary, Queen of Scots, that was founded as a monastery in 1128. This property once hosted other royalty, including the Bonnie Prince Charlie and the late Queen of England, Elizabeth II. Tour the 14 historic state apartments and imagine life of yesteryear while marveling at the intricate drapery, old wood paneling, and ornately designed ceilings. The Queen’s Gallery at the Palace of Holyroodhouse hosts a program of changing exhibitions from the Royal Collection. Behold the natural beauty of the palace gardens’ rolling lush green pastures, vibrant flowers, and Wentworth Elm trees, which were previously thought to have been extinct.

Enjoy free time to shop and sightsee before this grand adventure concludes with a special farewell dinner to reminisce over the past week’s travels and bid soraidh ("farewell" in Gaelic) to Scotland. Overnight: Kimpton Charlotte Square Hotel (B,D)

Famous for its craic ("crack")—a mixture of repartee, humor, and intelligence—Dublin has attracted visitors for centuries. Embrace the Emerald Isle's time-honored traditions, and discover present-day modernizations during a hop-on / hop-off tour of the city, visits to a museum and brewery, and an evening filled with lively storytelling and music.

Itinerary

Day +1: En Route from U.S.
Thursday, August 10, 2023

Day +2: Arrive in Dublin, Ireland
Friday, August 11, 2023
Welcome to Ireland! Enjoy a hop-on / hop-off tour of lively Dublin, named "Europe's friendliest" twice by TripAdvisor and one of Lonely Planet's "Top 10 Cities in the World" to visit.

Dublin is a city with a soul—a place that retains and appreciates the importance of genuine human interaction. Founded in 841 by the Vikings, the area’s interesting past and many monuments tell of its fascinating history. Today, this cosmopolitan capital of the Irish Republic is host to more than one million residents. Taking advantage of its compact size, the informative and entertaining hop-on, hop-off tour of Dublin allows visitors to soak in the captivating atmosphere and buzz at their own pace.

Start with a dedication to Ireland’s most famous literary son at the Oscar Wilde statue in Merrion Square. Continue past the sprawling campus of Trinity College, and pause at the imposing gates. Stop at the Molly Malone statue to hear the part mythological, part historical tale of Molly Malone, who was immortalized in the famous song named after her. See Christchurch Cathedral, Dublin’s oldest working structure, which has been welcoming pilgrims for more than 1,000 years. Continue through the Temple Bar area, a pleasant cobbled area full of restaurants and shops during the day and a lively warren of bustling bars after nightfall.
Finally, cross the River Liffey by the unique, white-arched Ha’penny Bridge.

Later, experience an unforgettable evening of dinner, live music, and dancing at The Merry Ploughboy Irish Music Pub, or a similar venue. Touted as "the only pub in Ireland owned and run by traditional musicians," this establishment is an award-winning place that brings life and gaiety to a city steeped in history and culture.

Afterward, check into The Davenport, our home for two nights.

Overnight: The Davenport (D)

Day +3: Dublin
Saturday, August 12, 2023

Awaken and indulge in a full Irish breakfast at the hotel followed by time to explore Dublin at leisure in the early morning. Perhaps visit a café for Irish coffee and conversation with the locals, pop into one of the charming shops on Grafton Street, or simply meander the cobblestone roads and take in the picturesque sights of this bustling city.

Mid-morning today, visit EPIC, The Irish Museum of Emigration. This state-of-the-art, interactive, and award-winning facility is located inside the beautiful vaults of the 1820 Custom House Quarter building in Dublin’s Docklands—the original departure point for so many of Ireland’s emigrants. It inspires and guides a journey of discovery with stories of Irish emigration around the world, from early times to modern day. Over centuries, some 10 million people have left the island of Ireland. Step through 20 themed galleries to learn why people chose to leave, see how they influenced the world, and feel the connection between descendants and Ireland today. Via engaging displays, short movies, and interesting artifacts, remarkable stories of sacrifice, endurance, and adventure are brought to life. EPIC is a must-see to learn more about Ireland, and for those interested in personal Irish ancestry, the Irish Family History Centre also is located here.

On tap this afternoon is Guinness Brewery’s exclusive Connoisseur Experience at the Guinness Storehouse. Back in 1759, an enterprising brewer named Arthur Guinness took a 9,000-year lease on this brewery for an annual rent of £45. Opened in 1904, the Storehouse was an operational plant for fermenting and storing Guinness. Today, the brewery is Ireland’s most popular tourist attraction and Europe’s largest stout-producing brewery. It also features a very fine exhibition dedicated to the Guinness story.

Throughout seven floors, guests learn the craft of making this quintessential brew—the ingredients, brewing process, time, and passion. One exhibit illustrates how the brew has been marketed and sold in more than 150 countries.

At the Guinness Academy, learn the art of pulling a pint of Guinness—a six-step ritual as legendary as the beer itself—taking 119.5 seconds from iconic surge of the pour to the eventual settle. In the private Connoisseur Bar, relish a personal Guinness tasting like no other. Taste the different types of Guinness while an expert guide/barman orchestrates a journey right to the heart of the black stuff. Raise a glass and toast Sláinte!—an Irish expression meaning "to good health."

The remainder of the evening is on your own to perhaps meet some locals and share a pint in a cozy pub.
