The Galapagos Islands
8 DAYS OF WONDER & AMAZEMENT
THE GALAPAGOS ISLANDS – SOUTHERN ISLANDS

In the extraordinary archipelago Charles Darwin called "a little world within itself," surround yourself with swimming-basking-flying examples of perfect adaptation.

Feel the thrill of encountering the flora and fauna that famously inspired Darwin—and in his footsteps, generations of nature lovers. Undiscovered by Europeans until the 16th century, the Galapagos Islands hold a central position in modern scientific and evolutionary history. In a place where human presence is relatively minimal, take the opportunity to observe and photograph these remarkable species up close—either sitting quietly to watch blue-footed boobies or snorkeling with inquisitive and playful sea lions.
Dear Fellow Traveler,

Join fellow alumni and friends as we explore the Galapagos Islands. Designated the first UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1978, the Galapagos Islands have been described as a “unique living museum and showcase of evolution,” and they are home to a fascinating array of wildlife inhabiting an unspoiled ecosystem, living in harmony with their human visitors.

This exciting journey features a day of guided touring in Quito plus an intimate cruise through the archipelago with up-close access to endemic species. Expert naturalists guide you through the wonders of this national park, whale sanctuary, and marine reserve.

Accommodations for this adventure are aboard the Isabela II, a 40-guest vessel with spacious cabins, local cuisine, and a staff dedicated to ensuring both your comfort and maximum enjoyment of this truly extraordinary destination and its diverse inhabitants. And sailing by small ship allows for flexibility in the itinerary to maximize wildlife viewing, as well as access to exclusive ports.

Stateroom availability is limited. With significant savings of up to $800 per couple, we anticipate this tour will fill quickly, so be certain to reserve your spot today.

Overnight: Casa Gangotena – Quito

Day 2: Quito
Thursday, April 16, 2020
Head out for a full-day, guided walking tour of historic Old Town. A local expert will take you through the Quito neighborhood called San Roque, where you’ll visit with local artisans, including shopkeepers, hat makers, and sweet confectioners. Explore the San Francisco Market—one of the oldest in the capital. There, learn about unique Ecuadorian fruits and vegetables, as well as local culinary traditions.

Continue your journey to the cobbled street of La Ronda, featuring balconies festooned with colorful flags. Stop by a chocolatier to learn how cacao beans are processed, and taste the finest chocolates of Ecuador!

Next, head north toward the political heart of the city. Following a brief narrative, stroll to the Jesuit church of La Compañía to admire its stunning gold-leaf interior. A lunch of Ecuadorian specialties, featuring Cocina Mestiza—a perfect blend of international flavors and locally sourced ingredients—will be served at the beautiful Theatrum Restaurant.

In the afternoon, head to the Casa del Alabado Archaeological Museum, within a restored 17th-century colonial mansion, to view its collection of pre-Columbian art. This evening, meet your traveling companions for a welcome reception and prepare for your upcoming adventure.
Overnight: Casa Gangotena – Quito (B,L,R)

Day 3: Quito / Flight to Baltra / Santa Cruz - Embarkation
Friday, April 17, 2020
Arrive by plane to Baltra Airport and transfer to the Itabaca Channel to ferry across to Santa Cruz Island. After a short, scenic drive across Santa Cruz Island, arrive in the Highlands to enjoy lunch and visit the iconic species for which the Galapagos Islands are named. Spot the saddle-backed shell of the lumbering Galapagos giant tortoise, and walk among them. Your naturalist guide describes their habits and the conservation efforts surrounding this remarkable reptile.

Take a late afternoon stroll along the main street of Puerto Ayora before embarking on Isabela II.

Join the captain this evening for a cocktail and briefing on the exciting activities to come.

Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Day 4: Floreana

Saturday, April 18, 2020

Floreana is perhaps best known for its colorful history of buccaneers, whalers, and colonists. After breakfast, board the pangas for coastal exploration of Baroness Cove. Look for the bobbing heads of sea turtles, or vibrant Sally Lightfoot crabs and marine iguanas clinging to the intertidal rocks. Visit the historic Post Office Barrel, which originated in the late 1700s as an unofficial mail box. Whalers going out to sea would deposit letters for ships returning home to collect and deliver. Today, postcards continue to be hand carried to far-flung destinations by other visitors.

Mid-morning snorkeling off the beach provides the opportunity to observe sea turtles and colorful fish, or perhaps kayak to spot wildlife near shore. Following lunch, walk along Punta Cormorant to see the flamingos, stilts, and sandpipers that inhabit a brackish-water lagoon. A short walk leads to a sandy beach composed of coral ground so fine that it feels like flour.

Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Day 5: Española

Sunday, April 19, 2020

After breakfast, hike the tumbled terrain of Punta Suárez to the blowhole that shoots water 50 feet into the air. Along the way, observe unique seabird colonies, including striking Nazca boobies and swallow-tail gulls. The Galapagos Albatross—the largest bird in the archipelago—is found only on Española Island between April and December.

In the afternoon, disembark and relax at Gardner Bay on an expansive, white coralline beach, where you can watch sea lions, Hood mockingbirds, and finches.

Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Day 6: San Cristóbal

Monday, April 20, 2020

This morning, arrive at the eastern tip of the island for more spectacular wildlife viewing. San Cristobal is the only place in the islands where you can find the three species of boobies (Nazca, red-footed, and blue-footed) in the same area. Choose a hike up the hill in search of their nests, and admire the unique landscape and spectacular views of the beach below. Or, take a walk on the beach and, if conditions are favorable, swim, snorkel or kayak.

After lunch on board, venture out on a panga ride along the shores to Cerro Brujo’s dramatic beach to enjoy a coastline stroll and more bird watching. Join fellow guests and crew for a festive farewell toast followed by dinner.

Your Guide(s):

Dennis Ballesteros — Expedition Leader

Dennis was born and raised on the Galapagos Islands. He got involved in conservation efforts early on, as a young volunteer for the Charles Darwin Research Station on Santa Cruz Island. He participated in efforts to protect tortoises, iguanas, and sea turtles.

Dennis decided to pursue his passion and study biology at the Catholic University of Quito. Years later, he became a licensed naturalist guide in the Galapagos and began to develop a keen interest in astrophysics, photography, snorkeling, and ornithology.

As a result of growing up on the archipelago, Dennis was able to visit many islands that are restricted to the public and see interesting Galapagos wildlife firsthand. On these islands, he was able to study, learn and improve his photography skills with National Geographic photographers. And, he collaborated with scientists, conservationists, and explorers to create awareness and inspire action through his job.

When he is not traveling or leading groups in the Galapagos, you can find Dennis hiking and photographing the wildlife and landscapes of the amazing islands with his friends, all of whom share his passion for conservation, bird-watching and star-gazing.

What Guests Are Saying:

“My overall experience was outstanding and I would definitely go on an Orbridge tour again with no hesitation.

The hotels were exceptional and the food everywhere was outstanding. Also, the coordination and logistics were flawless. There were no hiccups or misses for the entirety of the trip. Guides for both Galapagos & Machu Picchu were absolutely top shelf in terms of knowledge and experience.”

–Dan F., Spokane, WA

“This was a superb itinerary and was spectacularly organized. We loved the program. Mashpi was terrific, as was the entire trip in the Galapagos - the ship and crew were wonderful - the sights and itinerary were great as well. We thoroughly enjoyed it! Our transfers to Lima, and the trip throughout Peru, including the Machu Picchu trip, were terrific. All of our guides were wonderful. We learned so much and really enjoyed the program immensely. Spectacular!

We would like to travel to many places, but we will come to Orbridge in the future.”

–Linda E., Hanover, NH

“This was an excellent program, the park guides were just amazing with their knowledge, experience, and precious personalities. We became a little family although we were only together for a few days. The Galapagos Islands are magical and mystical and a once in a lifetime thrill for us. We appreciate all that continues to be done to preserve this unique environment.”

–Carla & Louis S., Austin, TX

“The Galapagos Islands trip was a bucket list, anniversary trip for me and truly was the trip of a lifetime. The program is polished, professional, educational, active, engaging, and incredibly well organized.
Our naturalists were tireless in their enthusiasm for each new day and experience. I’ll never forget the twice daily snorkel opportunities, the scenery above and below the surface of the ocean and the great care each member of the crew or staff took with their respective jobs.”

–Knox B., Greensboro, NC

“This was our third or fourth trip with Orbridge! We were very satisfied and will not hesitate to book with Orbridge again.

The program was very well designed, well managed, and, above all else, had arrangements to meet our needs and objectives of our travel plan.

We look forward to an opportunity to travel to the Galapagos Islands again with Orbridge at a different time of year to see the vegetation and the wildlife at a dry part of the year.”

–Dale & Kathleen E., Highland Heights, KY

“Scientific, historical and cultural experience was amazing. The hikes on the trip were amazing... the contact and interaction with wildlife was extraordinary as were the guides who led us.

The accommodations and service at the hotels and the Isabela II were excellent. The level of customer care is the best I have ever experienced.

From day one to entering security for the trip home, I was well cared for and served.

–Tim J., Worcester, MA

“The seamlessness of the arrangements was a great value for this tour. There were many pieces of the tour that Orbridge fit together well. All of the guides in Ecuador and Peru were approachable making it easy to ask questions and have conversations instead of just being talked to.

I can’t imagine coordinating a trip of this caliber myself. The hotels were gems and the activities were perfectly paced. I never felt rushed or that an activity was a waste of time. The attention to detail and the knowledge of the guides exceeded my expectations. Everyday was a new adventure to enjoy!”

–Shawn & Jeff H., Abington, PA

“Traveling with Orbridge was fantastic. They had everything covered. Even though we arrived very late in Quito, they were there with transport to the hotel and there were no glitches. I never had to think about how to do anything, and if we needed anything or had any questions, they were there with the answers.”

–Mike & Barb P., Conifer, CO

“The guides on the Isabela ll are very knowledgeable and well trained, so every excursion was well planned, exciting and informative. We were impressed and gratified that everyone we encountered on the ship and the islands were serious about the preservation and protection of the environment and its animals and plants.”

–Jennifer & JB P., Los Gatos, CA

“My wife and I travel a lot, but this was our first organized trip since 1997. Orbridge did a great job in finding excellent guides, great hotels in central locations, and always had wonderful meals, with an awareness of dietary limitations.”

–Jon & Rebecca G., Hickory, NC

“It was spectacular at every level.

We loved the small boat - perfect size, the variety of opportunities available (each equally great, so at times hard to choose), the guides and staff who were so responsive and knowledgeable, and the logistics coordination - every detail was handled.

We were very pleasantly surprised at how many snorkeling opportunities were available.”

–Karen & Steven H., Columbus, OH

“Touring the Galápagos Islands while being on the Isabela II was such a highlight! The guides were so helpful and made it so special... they just took care of us! And, with Machu Picchu, our guide took such good care of us and we really enjoyed his guidance, knowledge and passion regarding all that he showed and told us.

Every part of the trip was outstanding! We did not have to worry about anything as it was all covered and planned for.

Orbridge did an amazing job with this trip! I can’t wait to travel with your company again!”

–Cheryl A., Plano, TX

“When we received the brochure, this opportunity resonated with us as a trip we had long hoped to make. This program made it easy to fulfill a dream.

We were very impressed with the efficiency of this program and staff. Everything was taken care of, everything was explained to us, and we always knew what to expect.

We gained so much knowledge and understanding from the naturalists, they were with us all the time, were so friendly and personable.

We would travel with Orbridge again in a heartbeat.”

–Randy & Jan W., Brooklyn, MN

“All of the guides were excellent—all knowledgeable, friendly, and invariably patient.

This was an outstanding experience, one that I've waited for for a very long time. All of the wildlife amazed and pleased me. Thank goodness for this National Park.”

–Dee & Tay F., Lexington, KY

“This was my second or third trip with Orbridge and I have been and remain to be extremely pleased with their service. I pay you my highest compliment!

Everything we did was amazing! There just are not enough words to express how pristine and unique and beautiful it was.

Life changing! A dream come true!”

–Audrey D., Evans, GA

“Our guide in Quito was the perfect. She was so thorough in her explanations and took us to so many interesting places. She made the Quito visit exceptional.

I had never been on a cruise before and did not know what to expect. Everything was so well orchestrated, and I am very impressed with everything.

Our naturalists/guides were all great. They were all filled with so much information, and had answers to all of our questions. Each made sure we were well taken care of.

I especially appreciated the guides' knowledge and willingness to impart. Having a graduate degree in geology, I feel the info in that area was accurate and well tuned to needs of novices. And they were always available.

This program was amazing. Everything was so well managed. A guide was always there to get us from place to place and tend to all our needs. I felt so 'taken care of'. The guides were great, the staff was great, the food was great and the programs were great. This was an experience not to be forgotten.”

–James & Lynn M., Clarkesville, GA

“I can't say enough great things about this trip! I expected things to go smoothly but I was blown away by how every detail was so carefully thought out. I will treasure the memories forever and I've already recommended Orbridge to four friends planning to travel to Galapagos in 2020.

The program was extremely well-run from beginning to end. Clearly a professional team that puts the enjoyment and experience of the guests above everything else.

The three naturalists on board Isabela II went above and beyond, acting as guides, coaches, friends, and protectors throughout the voyage.”

–Laura C., Huntington Beach, CA

“Absolutely fabulous trip! I've wanted to go for 45 years and finally did it! I was extremely pleased with Orbridge and am actually looking into more trips with Orbridge. Highlights include the variety of tours offered. The quality of accommodations, travel arrangements, and guides were exceptional!”

–Anne G., Columbia, MO

“We have traveled with Orbridge on other trips. We have enjoyed each one. The staff and planning are excellent. This was an excellent program. We will recommend it to our friends. This was a "bucket list" trip. It met all of our expectations.”

–Valerie & George W., Cypress, TX
“We are not experienced with group tour or cruise events and this experience was a fantastic introduction. From beginning to end it was professionally run with very competent and knowledgable individuals.

Favorite highlights include the Quito city tour, the amazing variety of hikes and boat rides to view the incredible wildlife and birds of the Galapagos. The snorkeling opportunities were fantastic, especially snorkeling from the pangas.

We can’t think of one thing that we would have changed—it was all good.”

–Mary Ellen H., Portland, OR

“This was a bucket list trip for me and a dream come true. I was impressed with this program from start to finish and the efficiency and professionalism exhibited by all the support staff from guides to ship crew to porters to bus drivers to hotel staff. The highlights, besides the natural wonders of the Galapagos and the architectural masterpiece of Machu Picchu and surrounding Cloud Forest, were without a doubt the first rate guides leading both of these programs. They were knowledgeable, professional, inspiring and clearly proud of their countries and cultures. They truly made this trip the success it was.”

–Beth S., Bowling Green, KY

“I was impressed with the program and how it was executed. Everyone was “on board” in experience and involvement for the passengers and their needs. I felt the crew and the staff cared about the passengers and their experiences. I didn’t expect the quality of service and was very pleased.

The highlights were the panga excursions around the lava rocks, snorkeling and hiking to the nesting areas of the albatross, red-footed and blue-footed boobies. The blowhole hike and the walk among the seals was so exciting.

I thank everyone involved and hope to travel to this destination again.”

For those who would like to enjoy the beauty of dawn in the forest, early morning activities are organized before breakfast. Spot birds and visit a hummingbird garden (host to 32 hummingbird species) with breakfast al fresco. The birds will be active and calling, and the views are often the most spectacular.

After lunch, take an opportunity to view the Mashpi Forest canopy during a guided ride aboard the Dragonfly—an aerial cable car that offers a unique and spectacular way to see an expanse of the reserve. Go for the entire two-hour ride, or opt to combine the Dragonfly experience with a guided nature or waterfall hike.

MACHU PICCHU, CUSCO, AND THE SACRED VALLEY

Travel to the mist-shrouded mountain citadel of the Incas. So remote and inaccessible that it was left untouched by the Spanish conquistadors, Machu Picchu was unknown to the outside world until Hiram Bingham rediscovered it in 1911. During your time in the Peruvian highlands, you will have a chance to explore the famous city of Cusco and the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Visit the Pisac Market, ride the train through the Urubamba Valley, marvel at the massive stone stairs at Ollantaytambo, and break bread in the home of a local Peruvian family outside of Cusco.

Itinerary:

Day 8: Guayaquil / Flight to Lima, Peru
Wednesday, April 22, 2020
Welcome to Peru!
Transfer to your hotel to refresh for tomorrow's exciting expedition to the heights of Peru—and into its past, when the largest empire in pre-Columbian America ruled the Andes and beyond.

Overnight: Wyndham Costa del Sol – Lima Airport

Day 9: Lima / Flight to Cusco / Sacred Valley

Thursday, April 23, 2020

This morning, fly east over the Central Andes' peaks and plateaus to the ancient capital of Cusco, and then transfer to the Sacred Valley, with stops along the way to capture scenic photographs. Relax and sample traditional flavors during lunch at a lovely local restaurant before exploring this region of Inca sites and indigenous villages.

In the village of Pisac, discover a vibrant market with the colorful handicrafts for which this region is known: weavings, musical instruments, alpaca sweaters, jewelry, ceramics, and much more. Find a fruit and vegetable market at the main square where villagers from miles around visit, barter, and shop. Join this lively scene surrounded by the beauty of both the merchants' wares and the traditional clothing worn by locals.

Later this afternoon, enjoy time to relax after checking in, and perhaps take a short stroll through the property's lush gardens before dinner at the hotel.

Overnight: Sonesta Posadas del Inca – Yucay (B,L,D)

Day 10: Sacred Valley / Machu Picchu

Friday, April 24, 2020

After breakfast, make your way through the intimate cobblestone streets of Ollantaytambo, a "living" Inca town. Here, Inca descendants inhabit the largely unchanged homes of their ancestors and continue to maintain ancient customs and traditions. The massive fortress, perched among steep stone terraces carved into the hillside, is where the Inca won their greatest victory against the conquistadores.
Next, board a Vistadome train to Machu Picchu, the most important site of the vast Inca empire. Enjoy views of the mountains, villages, and Inca vestiges as you descend into the Sacred Valley. From there, a short bus ride takes you to the archaeological site of “The Lost City of the Incas.” Begin a guided exploration of the enigmatic citadel. As it lies before you, learn about the archaeology and history of Intihuatan (the Sun Dial), the Sacred Plaza, and the Temple of the Sun, with plenty of time to wander, hike, and take pictures of the photogenic site.

This evening, share impressions of your day while dining with your travel companions at your Machu Picchu hotel.

Overnight: Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel (B,L,D)

Day 11: Machu Picchu / Sacred Valley / Cusco

Saturday, April 25, 2020

After an early breakfast, experience the wonder of a quiet morning at Machu Picchu, imagining the sanctuary as it was centuries ago. Today, have a more in-depth look at this amazing place and its surroundings. Adventurers are welcome to hike the surrounding trails to other discoveries. Ascend to the Sun Gate, or, with advance reservations, hike more challenging paths, such as Huayna Picchu or Machu Picchu Mountain. Each option offers excellent views of the sanctuary and panoramic vistas.

After lunch, return to Ollantaytambo via the Vistadome train, and then continue to your relaxing Cusco accommodations.

This evening, we will dine at a local restaurant offering exquisite Peruvian cuisine and a festive atmosphere.

Overnight: Aranwa Cusco Boutique Hotel (B,L,D)

Day 12: Cusco / Saqsayhuaman / Kenko / Villa Tipón

Sunday, April 26, 2020

This morning, explore Cusco’s streets still flanked in places by Inca walls built with gigantic carved granite blocks. View the unique masonry up close to truly appreciate the astonishing perfection and mass of this true Inca marvel. Walk the plaza of Saqsayhuaman, an Inca complex overlooking Cusco, with stones so enormous the largest is estimated to weigh up to 200 tons.

Visit Kenko archaeological sites before going to the colorful San Pedro local market, which offers a sense of everyday life in Cusco. Mid-day, retreat to Villa Tipón, which is just outside the city of Cusco and set in the midst of awe-inspiring mountains and incredible gardens full of vividly colored flowers. A local family hosts a delicious Peruvian lunch followed by a traditional Shaman performing an Andean ceremony.
